1. You Lied To Me

Its 3am and she's not picking up.
She says I'm paranoid, but maybe not.
And I've looked inside her eyes.
And I've fell inside her lies.

I'll forgive this time around.
I'll tell myself it's not her fault.
But I don't care, I just want her back.

You lied to me. I can't believe you did this to me so easily.
You told me you were sleeping but you lied to me.
I gave you everything I had so easily.
But I can't bring myself to let you go.

Its 9am and now I'm freaking out.
She says that she was tired and she passed out.
And I looked inside her eyes.
And I fell inside her lies.

I saw him drop her off to work.
I saw them kiss as she got out.
But I don't care, I just want her back.

You lied to me. I can't believe you did this to me so easily.
You told me you were sleeping but you lied to me.
I gave you everything I had so easily.
But I can't bring myself to let you go.

You lied to me so easily.

2. With You

You came along.
You sat across the room.
You had no clue that I was lost in you.

You rubbed your eyes.
You took a sip of your coffee.
You turned my life around while you were having a snooze.

I took a step in your direction.

My knees were shaking as I walked.
Wondering what to say as you looked right up at me.
I said "Hi, I know you're sleepy, but would you mind me waking up with you?"

And fall in love with you.
Take me home with you.
I know this road is meant for driving, but I'm fine on this shoulder here with you.

We fell in love.
We spent each moment together.
We never got tired of each other after all these years.

I would still laugh at all her stories.
Even the ones that I heard before.
We'd watch the sunset every night as we held each other.
I know this sky is meant for flying, but I'm alright just hanging here with you.

I'm so in love with you.
Wanna build a home with you.
I know this bed is made for sleeping, but I'm alright just dreaming here with you.

3. Mind over Murder

Oh Lord I am tired of this world.
I feel rejected and alone.
Won't you send a messenger to me? To say:

"Don't worry brother, please.
I'll give you fields of gold,
Money for your widow
And 70 virgins for you"

I feel this power come over me and I feel it more than I think I should
I'm on the edge, but don't worry, I'll only be your storm to bring you sunshine.

I'm not a bad man you see.
I just want you all to feel the trouble and misery in me.
Only that will set me free.

I'll be in fields of gold, with money for my widow and 70 virgins for me.

I feel this power come over me and I feel it more than I think I should
I'm on the edge, but don't worry, I'll only be your storm to bring you sunshine.

Oh Lord why do you make me choose?
I thought you were greater than the rest.
You know I need your help right now, but please don't ask me to kill my brothers.
Please don't tempt me with your virgins.

Please don't bribe me with your money.
Please don't ask me to murder for you.

4. Where the Sun Don't Shine

Remember how you used to tell me on the phone that you wanted to be my girlfriend.
Remember what you used to do to me when we were alone...you made a man out of me.
So I made you my wife, thinking you'd stay like this for life. Oh babe.

Oh woman, tell me why don't you go where the sun don't shine no more.
Oh sugar, I know it's been 10 years, but baby I'm still opening doors just like I used to before.

Remember how we used to doodle on the desk in your daddies office.
The back row in the movies oh yeah....you used to drive me crazy.
So I gave you my name thinking it all would stay the same, but babe.

Oh woman, tell me why don't you go where the sun don't shine no more.
Oh sugar, I know it's been 10 years, but baby I'm still opening doors just like I used to before.

Yeah, under the bleachers in your cute sneakers.
In the parking lot, yeah you put it in your heart.
So I gave you a ring and honey I don't regret a thing.

But babe...
Oh woman, tell me why don't you go where the sun don't shine no more.
Oh sugar, I know it's been 10 years, but baby I'm still shining on yours just like I used to before.

5. Final Conversation

Hey my love our thread of time has worn.
I fear that this strength of love we've spun around it will get weaker.
Have I been all that you want?
Have I been all that you need?
I may not be the one you hold, but I am the one that you feel.

As I dance here next to you, do you ever wonder why I'd raise these mountains just for you if this land must one day die?

Hey my life I see end come my way.
And I feel alive as I fade away from your mind slowly.
I can be all that you want.
I can be all that you need.
I'll be the one that you hold, but won't be the one that you feel.

When I see his majesty I'll be sure to ask him why he dug these oceans out so deep if this land must one day die.

For one last time kiss me good bye. I'm leaving you today and I'm not coming home.

6. Win or Defeat

Hello my friend, I call for some advice.
Although my life is good I am cold inside.
I feel that time has swiftly passed me by.
I feel that time is leaving me behind,
When I was younger I used to sing up to the stars.
But now I'm lucky if I even get this song to you.

When you spend your life believing that if you try your best, you'll be a star.
Now you've grown out of that feeling and you've become what you are,
It's your love that guides your footsteps and your passion sets you free.
Doesn't seem all that bad now; tell me is this called a win or defeat?

You see I'm pretty simple just like you.
I work a nine to five, I pay my dues.
I've worked real hard to be just where I am.
I've gotten nowhere being the best I can.
Sometimes I wonder whether this life is just a game.
We're not the players, we're just the fans, and we never win.

When you spend your life believing that if you try your best, you'll be a star.
Now you've grown out of that feeling and you've become what you are,
It's your love that guides your footsteps and your passion sets you free.
Doesn't seem all that bad now; tell me is this called a win or defeat?

7. Burn My Bridges

And as we walk along this plentitude of all we can not say.
I make believe that we were meant to be but we weren't meant to stay.
And as I ask you to stop your mysterious delusions,
And I ask for all your guilty premonitions,
And I ask for all your protuberant emotions,
And I won't be long here 'cuz I am gonna make it on my own.

Watch me burn my bridges using the flame of my own desire.
And if you want you can sing along.
I don't need you to sing my song.

And as we walk along this plentitude of all we've left astray.
I make believe that we were meant to be but we weren't meant to stay.
And as I ask you to stop your mysterious delusions,
And I ask for all your guilty premonitions,
And I ask for all your protuberant emotions,
And I won't be long here 'cuz I am gonna make it on my own.

Watch me burn my bridges using the flame of my own desire.
And if you want you can sing along.
I don't need you to sing my song.

As I see this fallacy unfold here. I wonder is this all I got, I see it in your eyes.

Watch me burn my bridges using the flame of my own desire.
And if you want you can sing along.
I don't need you to sing my song.
I am gonna make it on my own.

8. Queen of Diamonds

Hey, hello my queen of diamonds.
Who shall we play today?
The hand of a lover, or a ruler that plays you like you tend to play yourself?

Is your wisdom in your conscience or your lack of belief in yourself?
Look into my eyes baby; I am the one that will change the colour of your dreams.

I would tear down these skies if you asked me to do so.
And I would run through the heavens and tell them I found you.
And I would lay in the fire that warms up your eyes.
As I look into your eyes, why can't you see me?

Hey, have you ever longed for comfort with that power beneath your hand?
The strength you derive from the strength of another you think of as your own.
Oh woman, you scare me about the courage I get from you.
Am I as high as the ones below me in your eyes?

I would fetch for you all of the things that your dreamed of.
And I would chase away all of the fears you were scared of.
And I would lay in the fire that lights up your life.
As I stand in front of you, why can't you see me?

I would tear down these skies if you asked me to do so.
And I would run through the heavens and tell them I found you.
And I would lay in the fire that warms up your eyes.
As I sing in front of you, why can't you hear me?

9. Lady Bug

Lori March was a painter who drew me pictures of nature
She took my under the bleachers and sucked me off like a freak, oh yeah, lady.

Cory Love was a teacher who messed around with her kids, yeah.
She took my under the bleachers and sucked me off like a freak, oh yeah, lady.

I got the lady bug slowly crawling all over me through the night

When she bites me oh so sweetly feels so right.

Whitney Peers was a dancer I got her drunk at a club, yeah.
She took me under the bleachers and sucked me off like a freak, oh yeah, lady.

I got the lady bug slowly crawling all over me through the night
When she bites me oh so sweetly feels so right.

I got the lady bug.
I got the lady bug.

10. First Love

She had a smile that stayed a while.
Every night with her brought me sunshine.
We made a mess every time we kissed.
We thought we found the one until we found the rest.

She's the first one to make me cry, the first one I let inside.
I guess we didn't try.

Don't you find that it's funny how we remember our first love forever?
We made our broken promises last a lifetime forever.

I could tell you about all the secrets under her skin, under the covers, under the moonlight and under the bleachers where it began.

She's the first one to make me cry, the first one I went inside.
I wonder if she died.

Don't you find that it's funny how we remember our first love forever?
We made our broken promises last a lifetime forever.
Don't you find that it's funny how we remember our first love forever?
We made our broken promises last a lifetime forever.

11. My Hometown

I came to town, back in '91
I found a home down by the lakeshore.
I settled down but was all alone.
I knew right then that I had to make it on my own.

I tried to find my place.
It all is so clear to me now - this is my hometown.

Time moved on and I found a girl.
By the lake is where I kissed her first.

LA music's where I bought my first guitar.
I found a job and was getting pretty far.

I found my place,
It all is so clear to me now - this is my hometown.

I wouldn't trade another town, or another time for the place I'm in now.
I wouldn't change all of these faces because this is my family - my home now.

Here in my hometown.
Come to my home town.
